

Seminar afternoons

Foreword		iv
1. To Find a Position		1
2. When You Start Teaching		4
3. Why a Teacher?		7
4. From the Front Office	as seen by F. E. Terman	12
5. The Profession of Professing	presented by J. G. Linvill	16
6. Teaching Is an Art	advocated by J. K. Vennard	22
7. Students Are People	says R. J. Smith	29
8. Let Us Teach Guessing	proposes George Polya	34
9. Feedback	the specialty of G. F. Franklin	43
10. Breathing Down Your Neck		50
11. Seeing Is Better	demonstrated by W. C. Reynolds	55
12. Doing Is Best	for reasons given by M. M. McWhorter	60
13. Know Thyself	urges W. W. Harman	67
14. Saltation	the past and present by W. H. Cowley	73
15. A Teacher's Life	viewed by D. F. Tuttle	79
16. Publish	according to J. M. Pettit and A. E. Siegman	86
17. Book		93
18. Research	poses problems says P. H. Kirkpatrick	103
19. From across the Quad	with E. R. Hilgard	111
20. A Question		119
The Seminar Leaders: Who They Are		121